

April 30-May 2
Essentials For Elder Adult Mediation

Adult Resolutions & Mediation Services (ARMS), in cooperation with the Negotiation, Conflict Resolution and Peace Building Program of California State University, Dominguez Hills, (CSUDH) will present this training program for experienced mediators. The program will be presented at CSUDH in Carson, California, and will feature:

- * Lead trainers with extensive adult (elder) mediation and training experience;
- * Speakers with expertise from multi-disciplines serving older adults and families;
- * Skill building exercises and case studies for practical applications;
- * Building awareness and appreciation for unique and typical experiences of aging;
- * What makes Adult (Elder) Mediation different;
- * Model standards and ethical framework for practicing Adult (Elder) Mediation;
- * The dynamics of family and intergenerational conflict;
- * Balancing autonomy and responsibility in Adult (Elder) Mediation;
- * Empowering choices and voices of parties in mediation;
- * Working with other professionals in the “aging services network”;
- * Convening and pre-mediation intake approaches to enhance participation;
- * Addressing myths & realities of aging;
- * Understanding the spectrum of capacity to participate in mediation;
- * Impacts of bias, ageism, stereotypes and perceptions on mediation;
- * Overview of elder abuse, red flags, safety issues and limits of mediation;
- * Recognizing elder law matters in civil rights, financial and other legal concerns;
- * Overview of the Probate Court process;
- * Awareness of the L.A. Superior Court ADR program requirements; and
- * Practice with high emotion and multi-party dynamics.

Enrollment is limited. For an application and pre-registration packet, contact:

Marcia Haber, ARMS Executive Director
46-E Peninsula Center #118
Rolling Hills Estates, CA 90274 USA
Phone: (310) 377-7624
Email: ARMS4Mediation@gmail.com

ARMS is a Project of Community Partners