“Making peace, one person at a time”

January-February, 2010

NCS updates...

- Helping Haiti. The overwhelming destruction and death experienced by the people of Haiti is almost too much to take in. Many faith-based organizations, businesses, schools and individuals are rallying to send funds and supplies. One of the most touching stories was of the physician and reporter Sanjay Gupta who traded his microphone for a stethoscope the day all the other doctors were ordered to evacuate the make-shift tent that housed 25 badly injured Haitians. Dr. Gupta stayed through the night ministering to them. This is truly “making peace, one person at a time.” May we all have the same courage and compassion in our chosen professions.
- 88 Tips for Shy Introverts: Becoming Personally and Professionally Assertive. Patti’s booklet on the topic covers tips for people who feel uncomfortable in social and professional situations. The booklet can be used as a goal-setting workbook to check off accomplishments and focus on areas for improvement with these practical tips. Cost $5 +s/h.
- John awarded for Critical Incident work. Sobel & Raciti, a national Employee Assistance group, named John as one of 12 associates out of 3,000 to receive an Excellence Award for 2009. His critical incident work involves helping employees who have experienced bank robberies, down-sizing, suicides, untimely deaths and more. For this, he is also being named Sun News’ “Person of the Week” in an upcoming issue.
- Help with local fundraiser. NCS is helping to promote a fundraiser for Womankind Prenatal Care Center which offers free medical and psychosocial care to pregnant women and their newborns. Parma restaurant Grace’s Grill will donate a percentage of their total income during the last week of January to Womankind. To participate (by coming to a meal at Grace’s), call (440) 842-2250 or visit www.gracesgrill.com
- We’re on YouTube! Thanks to our friend and NCS associate Mark Newton, we have produced a YouTube video. As we become more proficient at this, we hope to produce more. Don’t leave us, Mark!
- Susan Fee specialties. Our office-mate and friend Susan Fee (we’re envious of her techno-savvy abilities!) continues her work as a Communications Specialist, an effective counselor working with young girls’ self esteem and confidence issues, and presenter of many programs including anti-bullying/ mean-girl content.
